

How does Russell use the characters of Mrs Johnstone and Mrs Lyons in Blood Brothers to explore ideas about class?

Write about:

- how Russell presents Mrs Johnstone and Mrs Lyons
- how Russell uses these characters to explore ideas about class.

How does Willy Russell present childhood and growing up in Blood Brothers?

Write about:

- the ways particular characters change as they grow up
- how Russell presents childhood and growing up by the ways he writes

How does Russell use the characters of Linda, Mrs Johnstone and Mrs Lyons in Blood Brothers to explore ideas about the position of women?

Write about:

- how Russell presents Linda, Mrs Johnstone and Mrs Lyons
- how Russell uses these characters to explore ideas about the position of women.

How does Russell use the characters of Eddie and Mickey in Blood Brothers to explore ideas about class?

Write about:

- how Russell presents Eddie and Mickey
- how Russell uses these characters to explore ideas about class.

How does Willy Russell present education in Blood Brothers?

Write about:

- the ways particular characters experience education
- how Russell presents education up by the ways he writes